M-Health Application

The project consisted of two modules Doctor\Nurse consultation and Blood donation. In Doctor\Nurse consultation, the patient was required to login\sign-up, search for a doctor or nurse, book an appointment and make payment. In Blood donation, the donor was required to login\sign-up, search for donation centers book an appointment to donate blood, and then track the blood journey i.e., Receiver. My part was to develop Nurse, Nurse Appointment functionalities and integrated the whole project as well.
